

I am totally against the use of cell phones on airplanes. The seats are very close together and having people on their phones while flying would be very intrusive.